

CIVILIPSA Celebrates Engineers Day on 15th Sep. 2016

CIVILIPSA organized Engineers Day on 15 Sep, 2016 to celebrate 156th Birth Anniversary of Bharat Rathna Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya, the memorable son of Karnataka, The ignited theme of this event was Modern Architectural Philosophy for conservation of natural energy resources. Around 300 students were present to celebrate this occasion. Guest was Er. Vinay Babar. Principal Dr.Archana Keerti Chowdhary told about the importance of recent construction technique as well as evolution of novel ideas to develop the nation. Expert Lecture delivered by Er. Vinay Babar, Eminent Civil Engineer of Indore. He talks about the values of natural energy resources to flourishing the human life. According to him, the biggest crime of the world is wastage of natural energy resources and to stop this crime we have to nurture the young bloods for sustainable use of natural energy. Alumina Mr. Gautam Sharma also shares his experience for effective studies with students. Ms.Anjuri Shriwastava coordinated the event.

