

CIVILIPSA'S SRUJAN 2016 National Seminar On “Creativity & Sustainability in Civil Engineering.”

“Creativity & Sustainability in Civil Engineering” is a sizzling theme in this age of Civil Engineering; it should be focused smartly because it plays a crucial role in the development of Nation. Civilipsa’s One Week seminar SRUJAN 2016 (3-8 Oct., 2016) is inaugurated. This is Eight year of Srujan. Around 400 students of various institutes were present in the seminar. Guests were Dr. O.P. Bhatia and Er. Jitendra Vyas. Principal Dr. Archana Keerti Chowdhary told that this one week national seminar will provide attitude in the field of Sustainable Development which helps to cultivate the Nation. Dr. O.P. Bhatia Emeritus Professor SGSITS Indore told that adequate innovations are those innovations which are useful in the development of society and students should aware about this. Expert Lectures delivered by Er. Jitendra Vyas, Eminent Civil Engineer of Indore. He shares his wide field experience as well as the importance of creativeness in the students for the sustainable future. According to him, the part of sustainability in construction is decreasing day by day which results a huge decay in natural and artificial energy resources, can avoid by creative minds only. He also states that a building should be provided with Energy Stars Rating (trademarked ENERGY STAR) which indicates energy consumption and conservation unites for the assessment of environmental protection.

Another expert lecture delivered by Mr. Sunil Shrivastva, Regional Officer, M.P. Pollution Control Board, he put his views in favor of environment friendly construction. He also encourage the students to develop such building materials which are environmental friendly and recyclable.

To discuss the current issues related with Creativity and Sustainability in Civil Engineering , one panel discussion also organized. Prof. A.V. Khare, Prof. Sunil Hame and Prof. R.B. Chaturvedi share their thoughts in favor of sustainable development.

Various activities like Instridge, TecnicoHunt, Model Exhibition, Cad Kode, Terramind & various on spot events were also organized. In the presence of all the faculties and students of Civilipsa, Welcome speech was delivered by Dr. Nitin Joshi and Prof. Harish Dwivedi gave the vote of thanks. Prof. Sonam Yadav hosted the valedictory function and event covered by IIIrd year student Mr. Prasanna Chaurasiya.