

Program Specific Outcomes

- Understand and apply knowledge of process calculations, thermodynamics, heat, mass & momentum transfer to chemical processes.
- Graduates will be able to design process equipment & control chemical processes by applying the principles of mathematics, reaction engineering, instrumentation, process control, process modeling, and simulation.