- 4) To search “IEEE SPAC-AID 2026” type in “type to filter” - Smart Power and Advanced Communication using Intelligent Data Systems.

Name	Start Date	Location	External URL
Smart Power and Advanced Communication using Intelligent Data Systems	9/11/2026	Indore, India	https://ies.ipsacademy.org/ieee-spac-aid2026/

The footer contains copyright information for Microsoft Corporation and links to "About CMT", "Docs", "Terms of Use", "Privacy & Cookies", "Consumer Health Privacy", and "Request Free Site". The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the search bar and system tray with the date 5/13/2026.

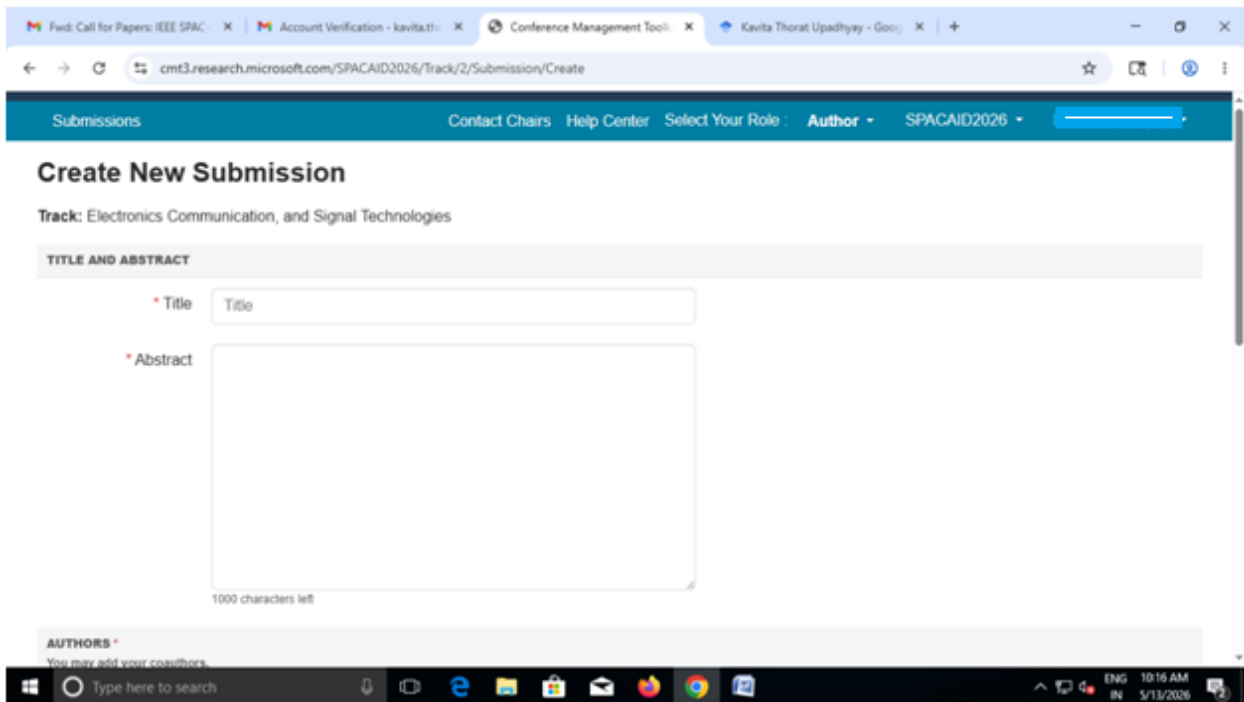

5) You will get the link of conference, click on the conference.

This screenshot is identical to the one above, but the first row of the conference list table is highlighted in blue. The search filter now reads "Smart Power and Advancec". The footer and taskbar are also identical to the previous screenshot.

6) Go to “create new submission”.

7) Select your domain, Submit your title, abstract, select your sub domain and upload full paper in doc or docx format and submit it.

Your submission is done.
